partment of Anthropology has been named the Distinguished Professor of 1951 by the faculty of the College of Arts and Sciences.

Dr. Snow is the eighth member of the College to receive this award since its inauguration in 1944. He was on a leave of absence when the announcement was made last week by Dr. Irwin T. Sanders, chairman of the election committee.

The winner of the title is in Hawaii directing an archaeological survey for the Bernice P. Bishop Museum of Honolulu. He is studying skeletal remains of a pre-historic race that were recently unearthed during a naval construction project.

A native of Boulder, Colo., Dr. Snow holds both masters and doctors degrees from Harvard. His undergraduate studies were taken at the University of Colorado.

Dr. Snow, a member of the UK teaching staff since 1942, entered the Army during World War II, and again in 1948. His wartime assignment, with the Quartermaster Deent's climatic research lab oratory, was directed toward determining the effect on foot soldiers of various climatic conditions.

Not so easily justified on the grounds of cultural improvement was the $814,943 addition to McLean Stadium. Of this amount all but $300,000, which was financed by the sale of revenue bonds, was provided by the state or taken from University funds.

These costs are no doubt offset by the publicity they have brought to the state. It would be foolish to think that this publicity has not been worth much to UK. Admitted the publicity we have received during the past few weeks is not the best, but for about twenty "basketball" years and six "football" years the University has reaped profits from this publicity in the form of increased enrollment and prestige. These profits have been far from insignificant.

In an otherwise excellent editorial in the October 28 issue of the Courier-Journal the following statement was made: "The condition of scholastics at the University of Kentucky is by President Donovan's own admission desperate. Unless more money is made available to the school, he warns, 200 teachers will have to be dismissed, although they are sorely needed. News Of Realism In Hollywood Creates Sensation For Germans

Hollywood is starting realism hat was the latest sensational news concerning American pictures we got in Germany two months ago. As for the interested movie-goer it really was a sensation.

Since 1946 we had the opportunity to see American pictures — English in love with Errol Flynn, James spoken at first, then, after the opening of several synchron-studios in 1947, in German language. Kentucky's Greatest Homecoming Dates Back To The 1931 Season When Wildcats Tied Tenneessee 6-6

For his All three also play forward. tucky at Lexington. With a powerhouse, built around All-American Beattie Feathers, that seemed only a matter of for-field.

Frank Seale, the Wildcat center that year, remembers the game. "The Knoxville papers ran a picture of the Tennessee team leaving for Lexington. Feathers was standing at the back of the train waving to a crowd which had assembled for the departure. The papers quoted him as saying that that which happened in 1929 would not happen again. In '29 we had tied them 6-6."

Seale recalled Athletic Director Bernie Shively, then line coach, posted the picture in the dressing room. The team couldn't miss it.

Came the day of the game and Tennessee scored first. It looked like roses for the Vols. Then Feathers went back to punt. Babe Wright of Kentucky crashed through the line to block the kick and Cat end Dutch Kreuter grabbed the pigskin for a touchdown.

Tennessee began to control the ball again and moved into Kentucky territory. Seale related, "If the ball had been any closer to the goal line it would have been on the other side.'

The Kentucky line held and took over. Too many time outs penalized the Wildcats half way to the goal. Ralph Kercheval dropped back into the end zone and booted the ball downfield. There wasn't a Kentucky tackler downfield and a Vol back streaked for the touchdown. He was caught on the Kentucky 15. There was time for one play and Tennessee

The play was broken up by a tired but determined Wildcat backfield and the game ended in a tie, 6-6.

Mr. Shively thought back over the years and recalled, "The Homecoming game which stands out most in my mind was the one in 1931. But heck, it's a great game anytime you tie Tennessee."

"Football's Jittery Genius" in the Nov. 3 edition of Saturday Evening Post is none other than Head Coach "Bear" Bryant. Knoxville sports columnist Tom Siler forsook the domain of Gen. Bob Neyland long enough to spin a pretty good story about Kentucky's Man of the Year.

Siler recounts Bryant's success at UK as well as his playing days at Alabama, his early coaching assignments at 'Bama Vanderbilt, North Carolina Pre-Flight, and Maryland.

Of course, reference was made to the fact a Bryant team has not yet defeated Tennessee. A lot of material is devoted to the Kentucky-

Pictures include an action shot in the Texas game, a Bryant-Parilli shot, and another of Bryant and Doug Moseley.

A bright spot in the Florida game last week was the play of freshman Larry Hennessey from Paris. A halfback in high school, Hennessey was moved to defensive end by Coach Bryant. Time and again the squat hustler broke into the Florida backfield to nail the heralded Haywood

"Dude", as he has been dubbed by team mates, had never played the position before in a game but the Gator backs would never have guessed it. He substituted spirit and determination for experience and looked good doing it.

The coaches say he "has the desire to play" and you can expect to see a lot of him in remaining games and future years.

Smokey's Job Begins When Game Is Over

Notes To The Unsung-When the final gun has sounded and the either pleased or displeased crowd begins to file out of the stadium, the job of Charles "Smoky" Harper has just begun. "Smoky," now in his second year as the Kentucky trainer, closes up his little black bag containing field first aid and moves over to the locker room to begin an inventory of team injuries. It is his highly important job to treat, or advise treatment for these hurts and to have the boys ready and in top condition as soon as possible-at least by game time the following week.

Jim Owens, Ex-Sooner, Was College, Pro Star

Jim Owens, born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, was an All-American performer for Coach Bud Wilkinson at the University of Oklahoma. Upon his graduation the young end played in the All-Star game at Chicago, then served a short hitch among the pror anks before joining the University of Kentucky coaching staff early in 1951 in what may be termed, "a bit of irony.

The University of Oklahom was riding the crest of a 31 game winning streak prior to January 1, 1951. The Sooners had been invited to participate in the Sugar Bowl on that date against a team of Kentucky Wildcats that had been beaten only once during an eleven game schedule in 1950. Coach Owens was one of the chief contributors to that brilliant record.

He graduated in 1950, played pro ball with the Baltimore Colts in the fall of that year and also served as end coach on the Johns Hopkins Cross Country Run staff. He accepted the appointment to Kentucky shortly after the Wildcats had defeated a great Oklahoma team 13-7 in one of the major bowl upsets on New Year's Day.

Owens was playing under him. Instead, he used several "key" players on both offense and defense, in much the same style that Coach Paul Bryant has employed at Kentucky this year. Owens was one of those "key" players that performed equally as well on both defense and Since arriving at Kentucky, Jim has been serving as end coach on the varsity and fills in as one of the scouts on opposing teams throughout the season. He is twentyseven years old and one of the youngest members of the staff.

During the 1951 Sugar Bowl game Owens was a psectator at that event. Oklahoma had an rooter in their former end, but since that time Kentucky has captured his fancy and his presence is being felt day after day as he goes about his coaching duties with the present Wildcat aggregation.
